THE WEATHER. Conditions.

The winds along the north and mitted le Atlantic coasts will be west gales. The storm that was central over the middle Misaissippi valley Thursday night passed rapidly eastward with increasing intensity and Friday night its center was over the St. Lawrence valley, whence it will move eastward. During the last 24 hours this disturbance was attended by general rains over the Mississippi valley and all districts east thereof, and snow along the north border. High temperatures prevailed during Friday throughout the eastern states.

With the exception of snow Saturday or Sunday in the region of the Great Lakes the weather will be generally fair during the next 48 hours over the region east of the Mississippi river.

The temperature will be considerably lower Saturday throughout the Atlantic states. Storm warnings are displayed on the Atlantic coast from Jacksonville, Ha., to Eastport, Maine.

Forecast. Southern New England, Eastern New York and Northern New Eng-land: Fair and colder Saturday; Sunday probably fair. Observations in Norwich

The following records, reported from Sevin's pharmacy, show the changes in temperature and the barometric changes Friday: Comparisons.

The Nicks We Make in Life. Bev. Mr. Wyckoff in his address likened the days of one's life to a carpenter's plane which in running over a board strikes a nail and the keen blade of the tool is nicfied. So it is with the days of one's life. We run over an obstacle and that obstacle leaves a mar on our life. As it is with the keen edge of the plane the nicks must be removed before excellent work can be done and if these nicks in life are not removed the result of them shows in the completed work. If we do good work the obstacles should be met and removed which will take time but we removed which will take time but we are amply repaid by the finished pro-

The annual banquet of the New Lendon Medical society was held at the Crocker house Thursday night. knowledged as follows: The attendance, the menu and the and guests sat down to the banquet which was served about 8.30. The menu was especially fine and the strviec excellent. The tables were arranged in a hollow square and were artistically decorated.

After the menu had been discussed, President Thomas Soltz made an address of welcome after which he presented Dr. John G. Stanton as the toastmaster. Dr. Stanton presided in his usual graceful manner. Dr. George Blumer, professor of medicine at Yale medical school, was the speaker of the evening talking on disease of the larger blood vessels in which he imparted to the physicians many new thoughts in regard to treatment. The address was particularly interesting from a medical standpoint.

Rev. Walter S. Swisher, pastor of All Souls' church, New London, the only other speaker on the program, gave a humorous talk which he likened the medical professor to that of the ministry.

During the serving of the banquet and interspersed with the speaking an orchestra, composed of Frederic C. Wight, ulanist, G. Herbert Rich, violinist and Justin R. Neff, clarinetist, furnished music and rendered instrumental solos. Quartet selections and vocal solos were given by Dr. E. A. Henkle, Judge Alfred Coit, Joseph R. Schwartz and Harry J. Shurts.

Among those present were: Drs. Thomas Soltz, John G. Stanton, Joseph M. Ganey, Charles B. Graves, Daniel Sullivan, C. F. Ferrin, W. D. Cronin, George P. Cheney, S. J. Lawson, Winthrop E. McGinley, W. L. Douglass, E. A. Henkle, Ross E. Black of New London: Drs. E. P. Douglass of Groton, Herman Little of Stonington, W. H. Gray, Louis Allyn of Mystic and Ralph MacDoweli of the submarine base. The guests of honor were Dr. Blumer of New Haven, Judge Alfred Coit, Rev. W. S. Swisher, Joseph R. Schwartz and Harry T. Shurts.

Road Inspection Bill. Road Inspection Bill.

A bill of $400 for state inspection of the town road from the watering trough, Groton, to Eastern Point has been received by Groton officials. In this connection it may be of public interest that the contract which was said to have been turned in to the state, was found on the desk of the selectmen at the office in Poquopoc. There isn't anything said in the contract about the state inspecting the town road and it is doubtful if any money is turned over for the purpose.
